When people asked Jesus questions, he sometimes answered by asking another question. He sometimes answered by telling a story, either from the Bible or one he made up. And sometimes he just answered the question. Whichever way he answered, people did not always want to hear it!

Jesus reminded this young man of the Ten Commandments. The Ten Commandments, along with the rest of the Bible, tell us that God wants us to belong to him.

Some people say that whoever belongs to God will always be rewarded with plenty of money and happiness and good health. But the Bible is more complicated than that. It says we need to belong to God even when it seems to offer no reward!
