Jesus told people what God is like, and what God wants us to do. The things he said surprised and upset many people, but they were not really new ideas. Almost all of Jesus's teachings are also found in the OLD TESTAMENT, the part of the Bible that had already been written before Jesus was born. People knew the Bible stories, and told them to their children, just as we do today.

The Bible tells us how to live, but it does this in different ways. It includes laws and wisdom and promises, but most of all, it includes stories. Jesus used stories to answer people's questions. And Jesus's whole life is the biggest story of all. It is the story of God's Son, living and dying as one of us!
